

International Prodromal Research Network (IPRN)
Florence, Italy
April 14, 2012

| | |
|---------------------|--|
| 7:45-8:30 AM | Continental Breakfast |
| 8:30-8:45 | Welcome and Overview: Tyrone Cannon & Barbara Cornblatt |
| 8:45-11:00 | Early Morning Session Session Chair: Tyrone Cannon |
| 8:45-9:15 | Bita Moghaddam (U. of Pittsburgh, US) – Mechanisms of brain development and the onset schizophrenia: Convergence of animal and human studies |
| 9:15-9:45 | Tyrone Cannon (U. of California, Los Angeles, US) – Longitudinal brain imaging studies of the psychosis prodrome |
| 9:45-10:15 | Nikolaos Koutsouleris (Ludwig-Maximilian-University, Munich) – Classification and machine-learning algorithms in the prediction of psychosis using neuroimaging data |
| 10:15-10:30 | General Discussion |
| 10:30-11:00 | Coffee Break |
| 11:00-12:15 | Late Morning Session Session Chair: Jean Addington |
| 11:00-11:30 | Carrie Bearden (U. of California, Los Angeles, US) – Symptomatic and functional outcomes of ultra-high-risk youth who do not convert to psychosis |
| 11:30-12:00 | Frauke Schultze-Lutter (U. Hospital of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, Switzerland) – Basic symptoms and the course of the psychosis prodrome |
| 12:00-12:15 | General Discussion |
| 12:15-2:15 | Lunch & Poster Session |
| 2:15-4:00 PM | Afternoon Session Session Chair: Barbara Cornblatt |
| 2:15-2:45 | Oliver Howes (King's College, UK) – Dopamine and the onset and course of psychosis |
| 2:45-3:15 | G. Paul Amminger (Orygen Youth Health Research Centre, Melbourne, Australia) – Fatty acid metabolism and the onset of psychosis |
| 3:15-3:45 | Anthony Morrison (U. of Manchester, UK) – CBT for people with at-risk mental states |
| 3:45-4:00 | General Discussion |
| 4:00 PM | Adjourn |

The IPRN is supported in part by a gift from the International Mental Health Research Organization.